October 31st 2010: THE SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

HOLINESS AND BLESSEDNESS

Blessed John Henry Newman, while still an Anglican, preached a sermon entitled “Holiness Necessary for Future Blessedness”. When he eventually collected together what he judged to be his most important sermons to have them printed, this was the sermon he chose to begin the series, which tells us how significant a subject he thought it was.

The most important point Blessed John Henry wanted to make in that sermon was that “Holiness” is that “without which nobody can see God.” He was quoting the Letter to the Hebrews (ch. 12: v. 14) in order to explain that heaven is a state of bliss only for those who are already holy.

The word “saint”, which we use of those who are already enjoying God’s presence in heaven, actually means “holy”. When we talk about “Saint so-and-so” we are not giving him or her a title, but we attach an adjective—“holy” — to them.

The feast which we celebrate on this day is one of the great solemnities of the year, because in it we remind ourselves not only of all the countless persons who have now entered heaven, but also that we are called by God to join them. But whether we will actually do so is not yet certain—nor how.

There are those who enter heaven directly at the end of their lives—those special and rare souls who have become completely holy through all the trials of this life, and are therefore already “saints” even at the moment of their passing from this world to the next. The greatest of these, of course, is Our Lady who was totally holy from the very first moment of her existence. But there are other saints who have become holy through a life dedicated to prayer, the sacraments, penance and obedience to God’s commandments.

Then there are still other saints now in heaven who were not yet ready to enter into heaven immediately at the moment of their death. How, then, did they become holy enough to see God and to be blissfully happy for ever in His presence? They had to be cleansed of all their past sins, and to make amends for those sins which, even though they had been forgiven, yet remained to be expiated. Such souls must spend time in a state between death and heaven, during which they gradually become holier, so that they can at last enter joyfully into God’s presence as new Saints. This state between death and heavenly bliss is what we call “Purgatory”, a word meaning “purification” - a state in which those who are destined to go to heaven make their final preparation.

Throughout the coming month of November, which begins with this great celebration of what we all hope one day to be in heaven—Saints—, we continue with prayer on behalf of those souls who are now between death and heaven in this state of purification. Some will be more nearly ready than others. All those who are in this state of preparation, of growing holiness, can have the benefit of our prayers here on earth.

Tuesday of this week is the day on which we especially offer up our prayers and sacrifices for the dead who are now preparing to enter heaven and who are making reparation for the sins they committed in this life. Don’t forget to pray for them on Tuesday. You can gain an Indulgence for them on that day, and also on other days during the month of November when we have many Requiem Masses offered for the souls in Purgatory so that they may enter heaven the sooner. See the notice at the bottom of the next page for details.

PRAYER FOR THE HOLY SOULS ON NOVEMBER 2nd AND THROUGHOUT THE MONTH

1. Tuesday is All Souls Day. To obtain a Plenary Indulgence for the Faithful Departed on this day, visit a Church or Chapel ONCE ONLY and pray the Our Father and the Creed. You must also be in a state of grace (by going to confession and communion) and pray for the Holy Father's intentions. Remember the teaching of Scripture that "it is a holy and wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins". (2 Maccabees 12:46) Our prayer for them is an act of love and will not be forgotten.

2. Throughout the month of November the Church continues to pray for the Holy Souls in Purgatory to help them reach heaven quicker. Papers are to be found at the doors of the church for you to list the names of the dead for whom you wish prayers to be offered during the month of the Holy Souls. Please then put your paper in the special box at the Holy Souls' Altar (on the left-hand side of the church). Please do not put money in the box. Money for Masses must be given in at the Sacristy, or on weekdays at the Oratory House.
