November 1st 2009: SOLEMNITY OF ALL SAINTS

THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT

Today we celebrate the glory of all the blessed in heaven—every person who has ever lived who is now with God in glory. But it is not only all who are already there that we celebrate, but we also look forward to the end of time when God will raise all who have ever lived, to see Him face to face and to be like Him in glory for all eternity. We pray on this feast day to the Saints who are even now in heaven, whom we call “the Church Triumphant”, asking them to intercede for us, who are still fighting our daily battles against sin and temptation, and who are “the Church militant”, so that by their assistance and example we may come in our turn to join them when this life is finally over, and all together await the resurrection on the Last Day.

THE CHURCH SUFFERING

Monday is the commemoration of All Souls in Purgatory, those whom we call the “Church suffering”, and begins what is virtually a whole month of prayer for the Faithful Departed. It is worth reflecting that the month of November opens with the magnificent feast of All Saints which looks forward to the end of all things, and then we move back a stage, as it were, to consider the state of Purgatory which is the preparation many souls make before entering that final state of heaven.

Why do we spend only one day on celebrating the eternal glory and the rest of the month on the preceding stage of suffering? We do this simply in order to remind us that, while the Saints do not need our prayers (on the contrary, we need theirs), the souls in Purgatory do need our prayers. So we set ourselves the important charitable task of praying for the souls who cannot pray for themselves in Purgatory.

As usual there will be many Requiem Masses during the month for different categories of people. Please take part in these as appropriate. It is worth remembering that those who pray for the souls in Purgatory will themselves not be neglected in their turn!

An indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who devoutly visit a cemetery and pray, even if only mentally, for the departed. The indulgence is plenary each day from the first to the eighth of November; on other days of the year it is partial.

A plenary indulgence, applicable only to the Souls in Purgatory, is granted to the faithful, who on the day dedicated to the Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (November 2—as well as on the Sunday preceding or following, and on All Saints' Day) piously visit a church. In visiting the church it is required that one Our Father and the Creed be recited.

To acquire a plenary indulgence it is necessary also to fulfil the following three conditions: sacramental Confession, Eucharistic communion, and prayer for the intention of the Holy Father. The three conditions may be fulfilled several days before or after the performance of the visit; it is, however, fitting that communion be received and the prayer for the intention of the Holy Father be said on the same day as the visit.

The condition of praying for the intention of the Holy Father is fully satisfied by reciting one Our Father and one Hail Mary, only once in the course of the day.

St Martin de Porres (1579-1639) He was born in Lima, the illegitimate son of a Spanish nobleman and a freed slave. At fifteen he joined the Dominicans at Lima as a lay brother and devoted the rest of his life to the care of others, including animals. He also constantly did penance. His reputation for holiness was such that his advice was sought by many persons of consequence. He also had the gift of bilocation. He is the patron saint of race relations.

St Winefride (7th c.) Little is known of this holy nun but her cult is associated with Holywell in Wales, which remains a place of pilgrimage and healing.

Wednesday 4th November: St Charles Borromeo, Bishop. Memoria. (White)

St Charles Borromeo (1538-84) He was sent to a Benedictine monastery when he was twelve. His uncle was elected Pope Pius IV when he was 21 and the following year, he appointed Charles Archbishop of Milan. Despite his youth he quickly became the most outstanding Bishop in Northern Italy, putting into effect the counter-reforms initiated by the Council of Trent. He was greatly loved for his compassion and care, particularly towards the plague victims. He was a friend and admirer of St Philip Neri.

Many thanks to the kind person who donated £50. The 1st prize will be £500 and a 2nd of £100 so further donations of cash are needed. Please address to Fr Guy.

SACRISTAN: The fathers are seeking to employ a new sacristan for the Oratory Church from the beginning of December. Please send your application in writing including your CV, to Fr Paul or Fr Anton at the Oratory House, marking the envelope "Sacristan". Please note that the post is open only to single males as it is a necessity that the person live in to carry out the duties of the position.

YEAR FOR PRIESTS—a reflection by Pope Benedict XVI

There are also, sad to say, situations which can never be sufficiently deplored where the Church herself suffers as a consequence of infidelity on the part of some of her ministers. Then it is the world which finds grounds for scandal and rejection. What is most helpful to the Church in such cases is not only a frank and complete acknowledgment of the weaknesses of her ministers, but also a joyful and renewed realization of the greatness of God's gift, embodied in the splendid example of generous pastors, religious afire with love for God and for souls, and insightful spiritual guides. Here the teaching and example of Saint John Mary Vianney can serve as a significant point of reference for us all.
