April 27th 2008: THE SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Christ will not leave His Church, but promises her the Holy Spirit
The Forty Days' teaching by our Lord to his Apostles after his resurrection are drawing to a close. In today's Gospel Jesus continues to prepare them for life after He has gone away from the earth for good, or at least for the remainder of their lifetimes. So He tells them, to reassure them of His continuing, though hidden, presence in their midst that He "will not leave them orphans, but will come back to them".

In what does this "coming back" consist? First, it is through the forthcoming outpouring of the Holy Spirit, whom the Apostles know because "He is with you, He is in you". At Pentecost, that inner presence will become a living mutual awareness between Our Lord and His Apostles. Then the Holy Spirit will bring them to understand that Jesus is one with His heavenly Father, and that through this same Spirit Jesus and the Father will truly live in the Apostles' hearts and minds. Secondly, from the day of Pentecost onwards, the Holy Spirit will make Christ visible to the Apostles in a wholly new way. Jesus says that "in a short time the world will no longer see me; but you will see me, because I live and you will live." Those who do not believe in Christ do not see Him. To them He is a figure either from legend or from ancient history. But, to us who believe, Jesus is not only alive, He is present within his Church, and He is not merely invisibly present, but truly visible to us, not with the eyes of our bodies, but with the eyes and understanding of faith and trust in Him, born of the life of prayer and the Sacraments. This is not mere imaginative language or wishful thinking - it is reality, but only through the gift of the Holy Spirit who is alive in the Church and who makes all of us, the Church's members, alive with the risen life of the Lord Jesus. In this way our Lord not only prepares the Apostles for His forthcoming return to the Father at His Ascension, which we will celebrate this coming week, but also prepares us for His continuing presence among us in the Holy Spirit whose enlivening outpouring we will once again celebrate with great joy and thankfulness at Pentecost.

Cardinal Newman's miracle is accepted!

It is with great joy and excitement that we have heard the news from Rome in only the last few days that the team of medical experts entrusted with the investigation of Deacon Jack Sullivan's Healing in Boston have come to their final conclusion that this cure is indeed beyond the explanation of science, and that it can be attributed to the Will of Almighty God granted through the intercession of Cardinal Newman. All that remains now before his beatification can be announced is that the Pope's board of theological experts must decree that there is nothing contrary to the Catholic faith in Cardinal Newman's writings, which has already effectively been established over the last thirty-five years of the Process of the Cause. We hope to update you with news about the Beatification as soon as possible, and plans to travel to Rome for it.

During Paschaltide, instead of the Angelus, we pray Our Lady's Easter Antiphon:

REGINA CAELI

*Regina Caeli, laetare, Alleluia!
Quia quem meruisti portare, Alleluia!
Resurrexit sicut dixit, Alleluia!
Ora pro nobis Deum, Alleluia!*

Joy to you, O Queen of Heaven, Alleluia!
He whom you were fit to bear, Alleluia!
As He promised has arisen, Alleluia!
Pour for us to God your prayer, Alleluia!

Then:
*Rejoice and be glad O Virgin Mary, Alleluia
For the Lord is risen indeed, Alleluia!*

Let us pray: O God, who have graciously given joy to the world in the resurrection of your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ; grant, we pray, that through His mother the Virgin Mary, we may attain to the joys of everlasting life. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.
